Dedication

THE BOOSTER:

THIS Annual is edited and published by the Senior Class of the Winslow High School, Winslow, Arizona, in interest of the Winslow City Schools. It is dedicated to all good boosters of the city schools, of which C. C. Grover is leader.

Also to the boys who entered the service, particularly Joseph B. Crozier, who made the supreme sacrifice.

Foreword

Years spent in school are among the best of a lifetime, particularly those spent in High School, and it is very fitting that they should be remembered.

In this volume of the BOOSTER the staff has in mind the boosting of the schools for public benefit by recording the activities of the school year 1919-1920.

We hope that this book will serve as a reminder of the good times and pleasant hours spent in Winslow during the school year.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

We are proud of our Board of Education. Everybody in Winslow is proud of them and they are not unknown throughout the State.

Mrs. A. E. Gillard is the President of the Board. She has been President for five years, and Clerk for two years preceding, being first elected in 1913.

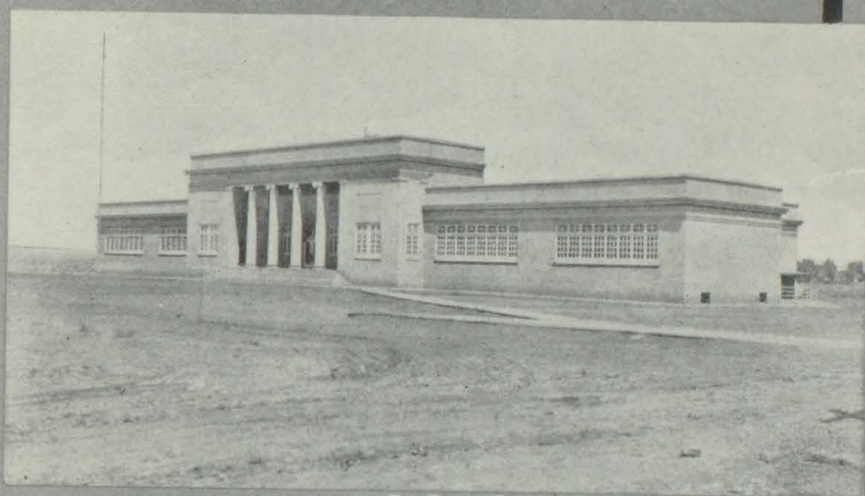

Mrs. George H. Keyes, Jr., is Clerk of the Board. She was also elected in 1913. During the seven years that Mrs. Gillard and Mrs. Keyes have been on the Board of Education they have seen the schools of Winslow grow from 150 children housed in one building, to a system with four large, well-equipped, commodious buildings and an enrollment of 800. This marvelous growth has been due in no small measure to their tactful, sympathetic and business-like administration.

Mr. R. C. Creswell is the third member of the Board, having been elected a year ago. He is one of the old citizens of Winslow, a prominent stockman and Chairman of the County Board of Supervisors. The universal esteem in which he is held by his fellow-citizens and his wide business experience make him invaluable in this position.

THE CITY SCHOOLS

The High School

The High School was built in 1912 and the third floor added in 1913. It is one of the best equipped schools in the State, having separate domestic science, domestic art, physics, chemistry and general science laboratories and building trades shop; a library of over 3,000 volumes; a complete commercial and typewriting department; and a manual training and complete mechanical drawing department. Courses in military drill, physical training, chorus singing, band and orchestra are also offered. A Librarian is maintained to look after the extensive library.

The Winslow High School is one of the few High Schools in Arizona accredited in the North Central Association, indicating a high standard of scholarship. At the present time eleven teachers constitute the High School Faculty.

Junior High School

The North Grammar is the first school building to be constructed in Winslow. It was remodeled in 1917 and now has a library, laboratories, shops, etc. It is administered as a Junior High School and houses the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The enrollment at the present time is 160 with a faculty of eight teachers.

Washington School

The Washington School was built in 1917 and takes care of the first five grades on the north side of the city. At the present time Washington has an enrollment of 310 and a faculty consisting of eight teachers. It contains the Board of Education rooms and the Superintendent's offices.

South Side School

The South Side School was built in 1917, and takes care of the first five grades on the south side of the tracks. At the present time it has an enrollment of 220 and a faculty consisting of six teachers.

New Building Under Construction

five grades on the north side of the city. At the present time this building is now under construction, the supervision of which is with Mr. Goodhall, our instructor of building trades. This new building is to be used for the grades for Mexican children and will when completed be thoroughly modern. This school is being constructed on the South Side, near the Santa Fe shops and roundhouse.

New Gym and Auditorium

A bond issue is up for election for a new Gymnasium and Auditorium. It is sincerely hoped by all friends of the schools that the issue passes.

CLIFFORD CHARLES GROVER, A.B., A.M.

Baker University.

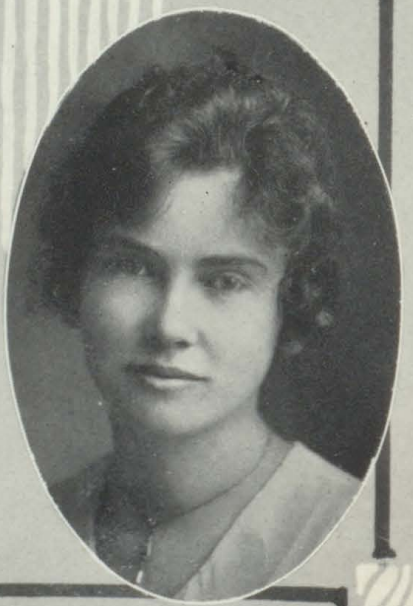

Denver University.

Superintendent of City Schools, since 1918.

"Here's to Superintendent Grover, the head of the band;
Who would do himself proud in any man's land."

"His valuable service to the school is appreciated."

F. A. PRICE, A.B., B.S.,
Principal of High School
Baker University
University of Missouri

"I've conned o'er hackneyed phrases 'til my brain
is numb,
And I've come to believe that it can't be done.

"His name rhymes with ice, also with nice,
Surely you know that this is Price."

MARY BROWN
Principal of Washington High

"Here we recognize Mary Brown, the most popular teacher in town.
Her skill with the gun put the boys on the run and as a carpenter she has won great renown."

HATTIE PENROD
Principal of Junior High
University of New Mexico

"Here's Hattie Penrod who has out-stayed all the rest,
Her pupils all call her the oldest and best."

GRACE HUDLOW
Principal of South Side
Tempe State Normal

"This is Miss Grace Hudlow, who coaches the Basket Ball Team,
And the way she handles them is certainly a dream."

IONE WILSON, A.B.; Pomona College.

Spanish and Latin.

"This tall, stately blonde from the golden west,
By her pupils she's loved and by her co-workers
she's blest."

PAULINE CLAFFEY, B.S., A.M.; Cornell University.

Domestic Science.

"Now class," just look,
Here's Pauline Claffey,
Who teaches us to sew and cook.

JOHN BRANIGAN, B.S.; University of Nebraska.

Science and Military Drill.

"This is the doughboy from Emerald Isle,
He's easily recognized by his Irish smile,
He drills the boys and flatters the maids,
And is known to all for his escapades."

ISABEL DINSMOOR, A.B.; Northwestern University.

Mathematics.

"This lady came from the land of the 'Native Son,'
To teach us to figure and speak our mother tongue."

CHARLES A. GOODHALL, B.S.; Pittsburg Manual Training Normal.

Manual Training and Building Trades; also Band and Orchestra.

"Mr. Goodhall has quite a modest smile,
And the music he teaches is surely worth while."

ELGIN F. LEWIS, LL.B.; De Paul University.
Commerce.

"Here's Elgin F. Lewis, the lawyer from 'Chi.'
Who seems to hate Winslow, tho we cannot tell why."

WINIFRED PEARSON; Columbia School of Music.
Music Supervisor.

"Miss Pearson of music, stately and tall,
Whose raven-haired tresses are admired by all."

CLEO MORGAN; Cape Girardeau (Mo.) Normal.
Art Supervisor.

"And here's to Miss Morgan, our teacher of art,
Who into each lesson puts her whole heart,
She came all the way from Missou,
To teach the poor kids the right thing to do."

LUELLA M. ERION, R.N.; Omaha City Hospital.
School Nurse.

"This is Miss Erion, the dispenser of ills,
Who assuages each ailment with potions and pills."

MARGARET WEST; Tempe State Normal.
Domestic Science.

"All this lady's duties are accomplished with zest,
We suppose it's because her name is West."

A. O. BUTTON; Washington State Normal.

Manual Training.

"With mallet and chisel, with plane and level,
He teaches the boys to work like the devil."

L. B. BRITT; Warrensburg (Mo.) State Normal.

History and Geography.

"Here's to the human dynamo, renowned for his wit,
He hails from Missouri and his name is Britt."

GERTRUDE DAVIS; Denton State Normal.

English.

"Miss Davis of English, both occupation and name,
From the North Grammar rebounds her fame."

MABLE R. COLE; Keene (N. H.), State Normal.

Spelling and Reading.

"With a New England conscience and a taste for fame,
The color of her hair will tell you her name."

JEANNETTE WILCOX; Michigan State Normal.

First Grade.

"Out of the North this young lady came,
Because of the sunshine for which Ariz. is famed."

IRENE WHETSTONE; Flagstaff State Normal.

First Grade.

"Miss Whetstone came from Holbrook to our little desert town,
And she teaches the young Idea how to grow with great renown."

BELLE OAKLEY; Nebraska State Normal.

Third Grade.

"Here's stately Miss Oakley, the tall, slender blonde, Who'se adored by the parents of the children she's fond."

ESTHER FLEMING; Minneapolis Kindergarten School.

Kindergarten.

"From far off Montana Miss Flemming came,
With her coal black eyes that flash like flame."

GLADYS FOUTS; San Diego Normal.

Fifth Grade.

"Here's Miss Gladys Fouts, but alas alack,
Next year we'll miss her, for she's not coming back."

ULAH HUDLOW; Tempe State Normal.

First Grade.

"This is Miss Hudlow, with smile so sweet,
And a trim little figure so dainty and neat."

EDITH HENDERSON; Stephens (Mo.) College.

Substitute, Second Grade.

"From the North Side to the South Side,
From the Second to the Fourth, from the Grammar
to the Washington, this lady holdeth forth."

MARGARET DAY; San Diego Normal.

Third Grade.

"With eyes of blue, a form petite,
And wavy hair like ripened wheat."

MISS ELROD; Alabama State Normal.

Fourth Grade.

"Here's the girl from old Alabam! out in Winslow with knowledge to cram—
In the heads of the girls and the domes of the boys,
Which she accomplishes with a great mental poise."

RUBY CASSIN; Colorado State Normal.

First Grade.

"With brown eyes and a winsome smile,
Miss Ruby Cassin does the boys beguile."

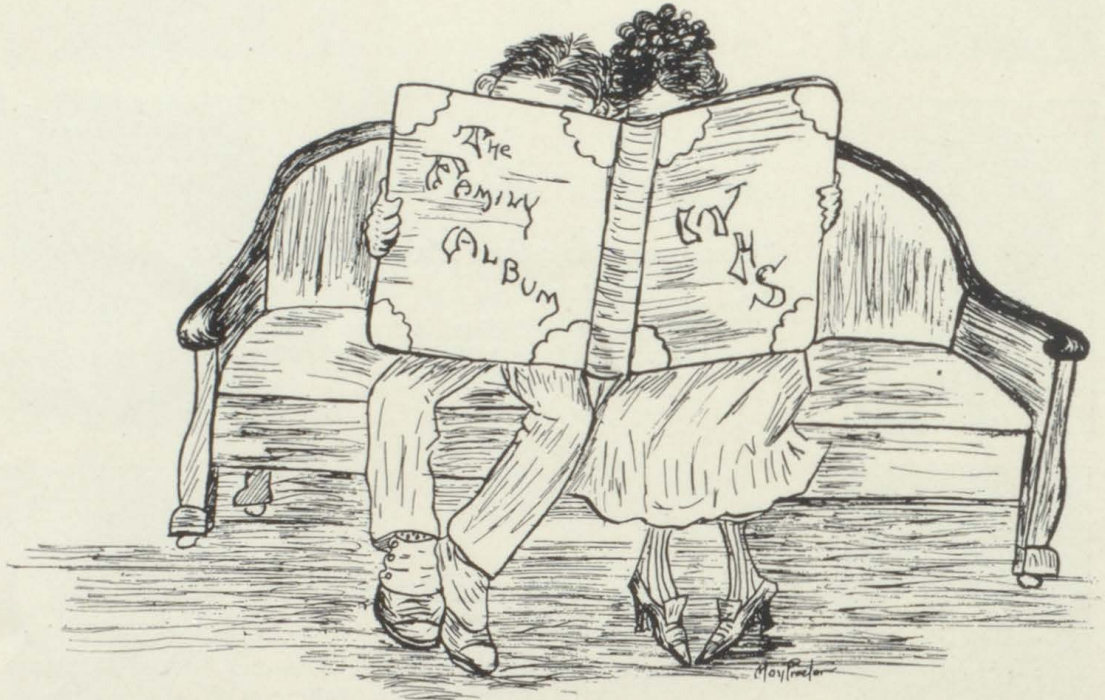

MABEL BARTEL; University of Kansas.

Fourth Grade.

"This lady came from Kansas to Arizona's sunny land,
To finish out the fourth grade, that lawless, rebel band."

A NEW GYMNASIUM

Unable to meet the expenses of our athletic contests we had made during the fall and winter it was deemed necessary to raise money to meet the debt.

It goes without saying had we a gymnasium there is no doubt at all we would have made money in basketball, being able to continue our schedule which we had hopes of carrying out.

However, after the holidays we saw the inevitable indebtedness—so with the entire school began the movement—a box supper was staged to relieve this debt. How fine it would have been to have had a good gymnasium and have avoided deficits.

Greetings

The Senior Class extends greetings and good wishes to the entire student body. We hope that our feeble effort in putting out this book will merit your approval.

A large, stylized letter 'S' that serves as a backdrop for three illustrations. At the top left of the 'S' is a small schoolhouse with a flag on its roof. At the top right is a cherub-like figure. In the middle of the 'S' is a detailed illustration of a woman's face with a headband and a fur collar. The word 'SENIORS' is written in a bold, outlined, sans-serif font to the right of the 'S'.

History of 1920 Seniors

M. MURPHY, '20

Listen my friends and you shall hear
Of the famous Seniors' grand career,
Twas in 1916 a Freshman class
Entered Winslow Hi, intent to surpass
All previous classes in wisdom and wit
And with the world in general make a big hit.

Ten rollicking boys full of frolic and fun
And eleven sweet girlies full of glee every one,
All blissfully ignorant of the trials they'd pass thru
Before they'd accomplish the work they must do.
To acquire the grace and proper demeanor
Which rightfully belongs to a dignified Senior.

But sad to say before the first year was finished
The ranks of this famous class had diminished
First Hazel and Florence and Tiny and Zearl
Took their flight and left our hearts in a whirl.
And after her dear mother's passing away,
We lost our darling, adorable Fay.

But as the Freshmen are always a much abused
class,
Those who were left rejoiced to see the year pass.
And as we emerged into Sophomore days
The class was changed in a number of ways.
New members were added and all were much wiser,
And choose Miss May Anderson as our dear class adviser.

New tho this class was perfect and prim,(?)
They were ever alert and in excellent trim,
For any amusement that might pass their way
And wisely agreed that all work and no play
Made Dick a dull boy, and for Herman the Imp
Impeded his growth and made him a shrimp.
So picnics and parties and lots of good eats
A portion of studies and athletic feats,
Were wisely distributed thru the Sophomore year
And filled them with happiness, health and good cheer.
Three cheers for our teachers so patient and true,
Who planned all our pleasures and helped us work,
too.

Time brought many changes with each going and coming
But the year 1918 found the Junior class humming,
Of many dear faces the class was bereft
But a jolly good bunch were the ones who were left.
Some of the boys met a cruel war's fate
And were drilling for service clear out of the state.

But news of the Armistice the 11th of November
Filled our hearts with a joy we shall ever remember.
And as peace settled over us and our days grew more calm

We turned our attention toward giving a Prom.
This proved no small task and met with much opposition,
And made gathering the money a tough proposition.

But youth found a way, for youth cannot fail
And with social and supper we raked in the kale,
So the Prom with gay colors and music was rife
And we gave the Seniors the time of their life.
At roll call the first day of our glad Senior year
But six of the original freshies were here.

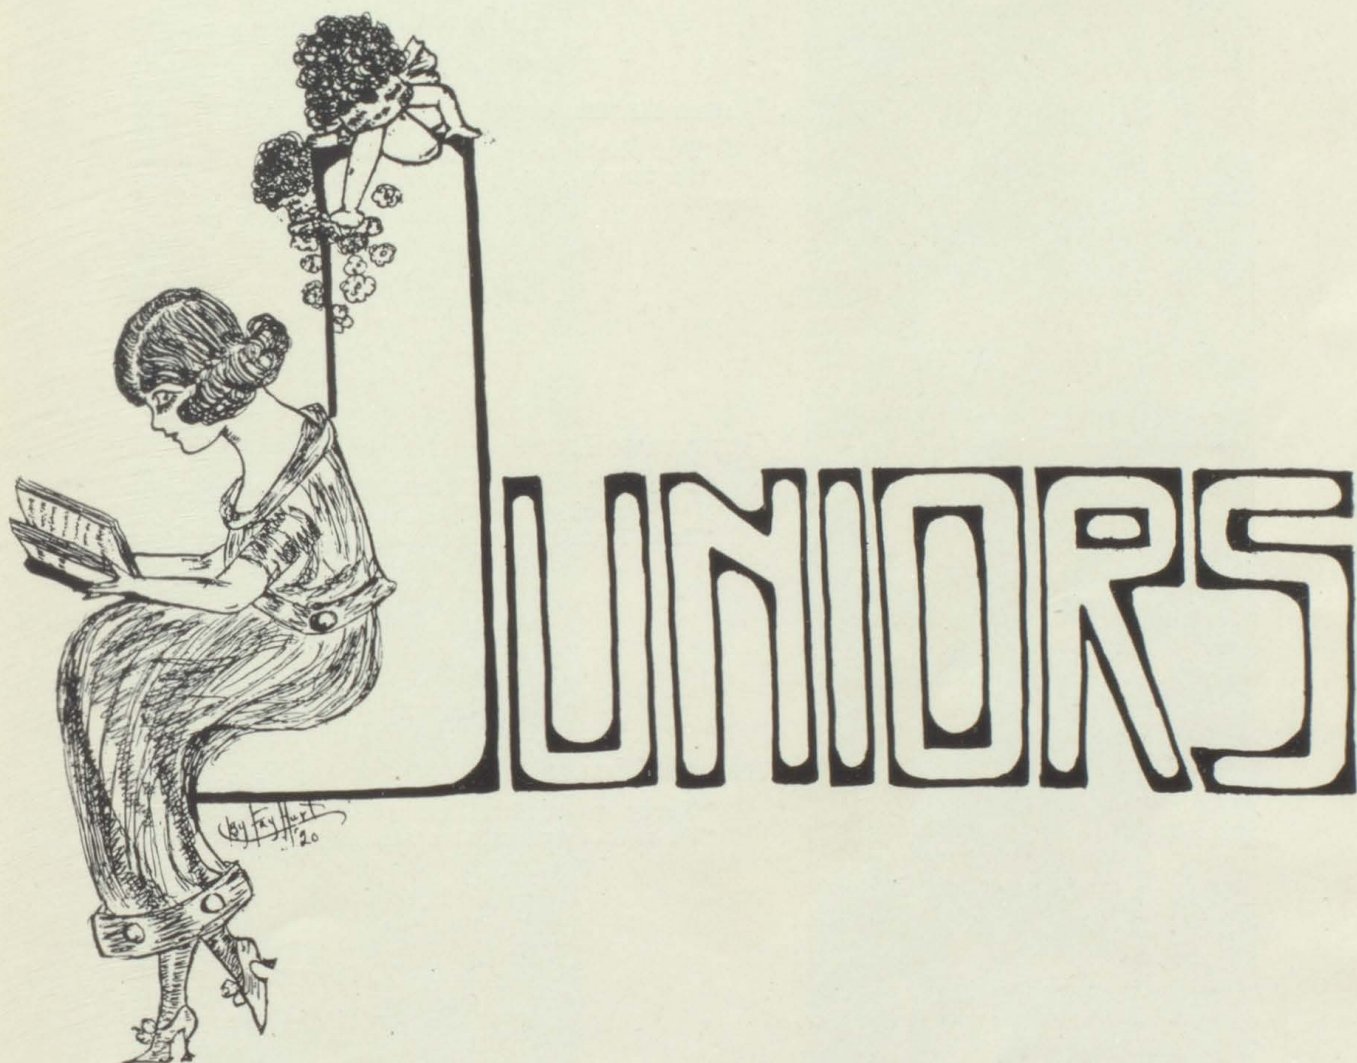

Kenneth Cooper whose wisdom we all have to admit,
And Richard so gallant with his jolly good wit.
Margaret Garduno, a shy Spanish Miss,
Mildred, Elsie and Thelma—all remember the bliss
Of the four happy years of clouds and fair weather,
The joy and the sorrows they passed thru together.

Margarite and Anna by dint of hard work,
Made the race in three years, for no task did they shirk,
There is Gertrude and Cleo about whose wit there's no quibble
And Mary so jolly, and young Harry Pribble,
Fay Hurt who much talent in drawing possessing
To the Annual Staff has proved a great blessing.

And last but not least Willie Carroll and John
Drumm
Two of whom from some former classes have come,
The war in their school work great havoc had played
For John in the K. C. an officer was made.
And Willie—yes Willie did answer the call
Tho he never did march in the brave ranks at all,
But he took the place of his big soldier brother
Bravely left his school work and supported his Mother.

Thus the Senior Class passes as a tale that is told
And its fond memories we cherish a apple of gold.
But could we turn backward old time in it's flight
There are many mistakes we would gladly make right,
We're sorry for wrongs and our ways have amended.
We are dignified Seniors,—thus the tale's ended.

"She is demure, modest and quiet."

Junior Class

BY JESSIE HITCHCOCK

When we entered the school as Freshmen, we had an enrollment of thirty-three, but during the year we lost a number of our members and when we enrolled as Sophomores we had only twenty left. This year we have nineteen enrolled in the class and we hope to keep this number up until graduation.

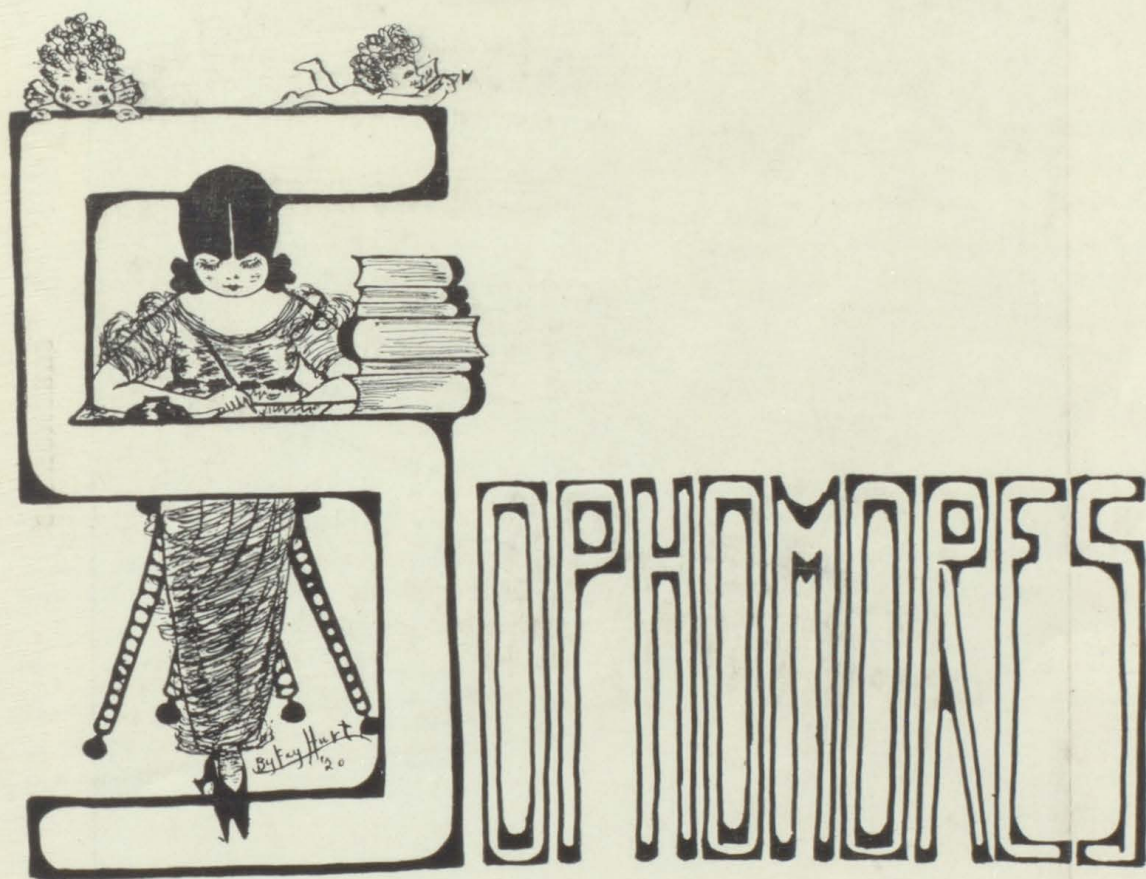

The Junior class at the beginning of the year bid fair as the leaders to raise the standard of the school higher than ever before and it goes without saying with our spirit of aggressiveness and our indomitable will, we are among the leaders of the school on all occasions. During the year we have given many interesting programs in the assembly, at which many visitors were present, and everyone will agree that the Juniors are splendid entertainers.

One of the other important events of the Junior year was the preparation of the Junior Play, "What Happened to Jones." Due to the limited talent in the class, we called on other classes for help, for which we are duly grateful. The play was well advertised and was a great success.

The money realized from the play is used for the Junior Prom, which promises to surpass any other given by the school. It is the one ambition of all the Juniors to make this Prom the best ever. It was with great regret we lost one of our best members, Gilbert Urick. We feel that some other school is very fortunate to get such a talented and active student as Gilbert.

Much of the success of our class is due to the efforts of Mr. Brannigan, our class adviser. It is the intention of every member to remain and graduate with the class, which we think is the best organized and most active class to leave the Winslow High School.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomore Class

BY BERNARDINE CRESWELL

The Sophomore Class has always been considered the best and most intelligent class in school, even when we were Freshmen. Last year we entered High School with the utmost dignity and were feeling very much grown up, but the horrible Sophomores soon took some of the dignity out of us and quieted us down a little. They gave us a party early in the year at which we did most of the entertaining, but we had a very good time even if they did try to poison us later in the evening.

But now we are Sophomores and the Freshmen entertain us. The Freshmen were much too frisky and lively this year, but we gave them a very warm reception and have treated them very nice indeed, for Freshmen.

We have given the very best programs in the assembly that have been given this year. We have among the best and most experienced teachers as our class advisers, and much of the success of the Sophomores is due to their unequalled skill and untiring energy.

The music department would find it difficult to get along without us, because most of the musicians of the school are active members of our class. Much of the dramatic talent of the school belongs to us also, which is shown by the Juniors selecting five Sophomores for their class play.

The teachers all honor us and all have a soft spot in their hearts for us. Mr. Grover thinks a great deal of us and will always give us a good word, and Mr. Price has told us we are one of his best classes.

FRESHMEN

Freshman Class History

BY MR. PRICE

The Freshman class of the High School this year has proved to be the largest class in numbers in the High School. All have taken great interest in the activities of the school and in many ways this class has excelled the upper classes.

The Freshmen have made a remarkable record for the smallest number of tardies during the year, although the largest class. For nearly three months not a tardy was chalked up to this class and as a result, Mr. Price declared a holiday for them one bright, sunny day in March, and the entire class had an enjoyable picnic and holiday near Sunset Mountain. Mr. Goodhall and Miss Dinsmoor, who have been the class advisers for the year, have done much for the success of the organization.

Next year as Sophomores this class expects to lead in all the activities of the school. Scholarship this year has been important and more Freshmen have appeared each month on the honor roll than any other class.

THIRD YEAR JUNIOR HIGH

The Year at the Junior High Building

BY L. B. BRITT

During the school year of 1919-20, marked improvements and beneficial changes have been made at the North Grammar School or Junior High.

Chief among these improvements is the noticeable attitude of the children toward their country's flag, their elders and superiors and toward one another. Various devices and means have been used to instill these attitudes, namely, the morning flag salute, close supervision of the playground, military training and a study hall after school for those who have transgressed.

Regular classes in physical training for both boys and girls have been maintained during the year and in spite of inclement weather, little apparatus and no gymnasium, have proven very successful. This course included military training, calisthenics, Swedish gymnastics, folk dancing and hikes or road marches and corrective exercises.

Programs have been conducted before the entire student body on special occasions and holidays and on Friday mornings one of the three classes have been permitted to attend the weekly program given by the High School students in the High School Auditorium.

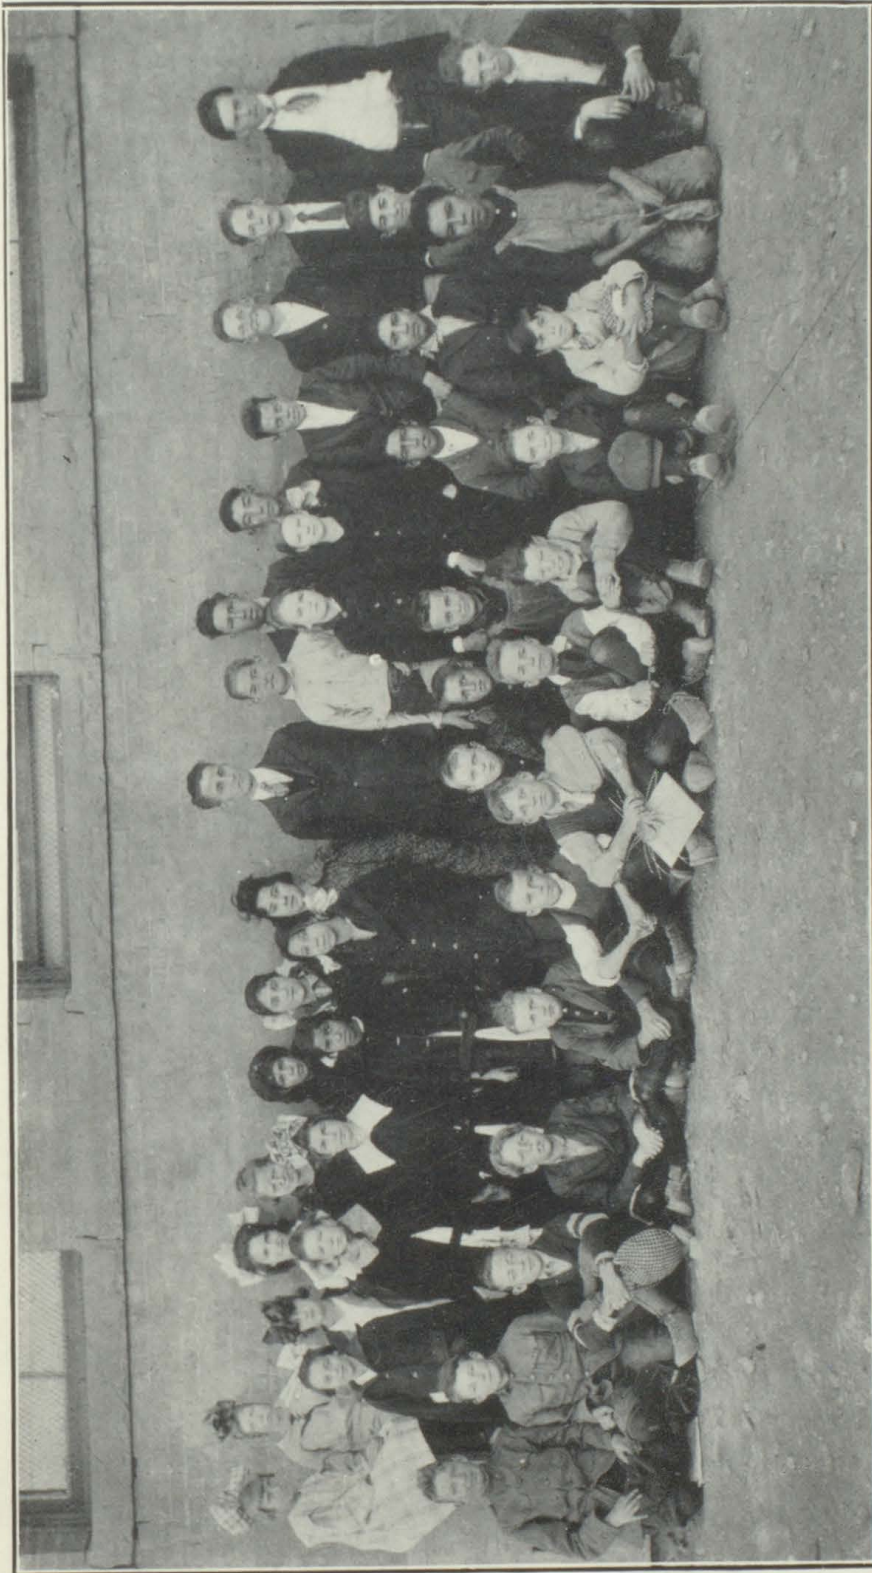

The Manual Training Department has contributed much to the general upkeep of the school by the making of various pieces of furniture, by repairing playground apparatus and by making toys for the children of the South Side School at Christmas time.

Scholarship in general has been higher than ever before by reason of the fact that teachers of the formal subjects have held their pupils strictly to their tasks.

Fire drills have been conducted frequently and a hose and chemical extinguisher detail has been maintained. On one occasion the building was emptied and extinguishing apparatus arranged in fifty seconds.

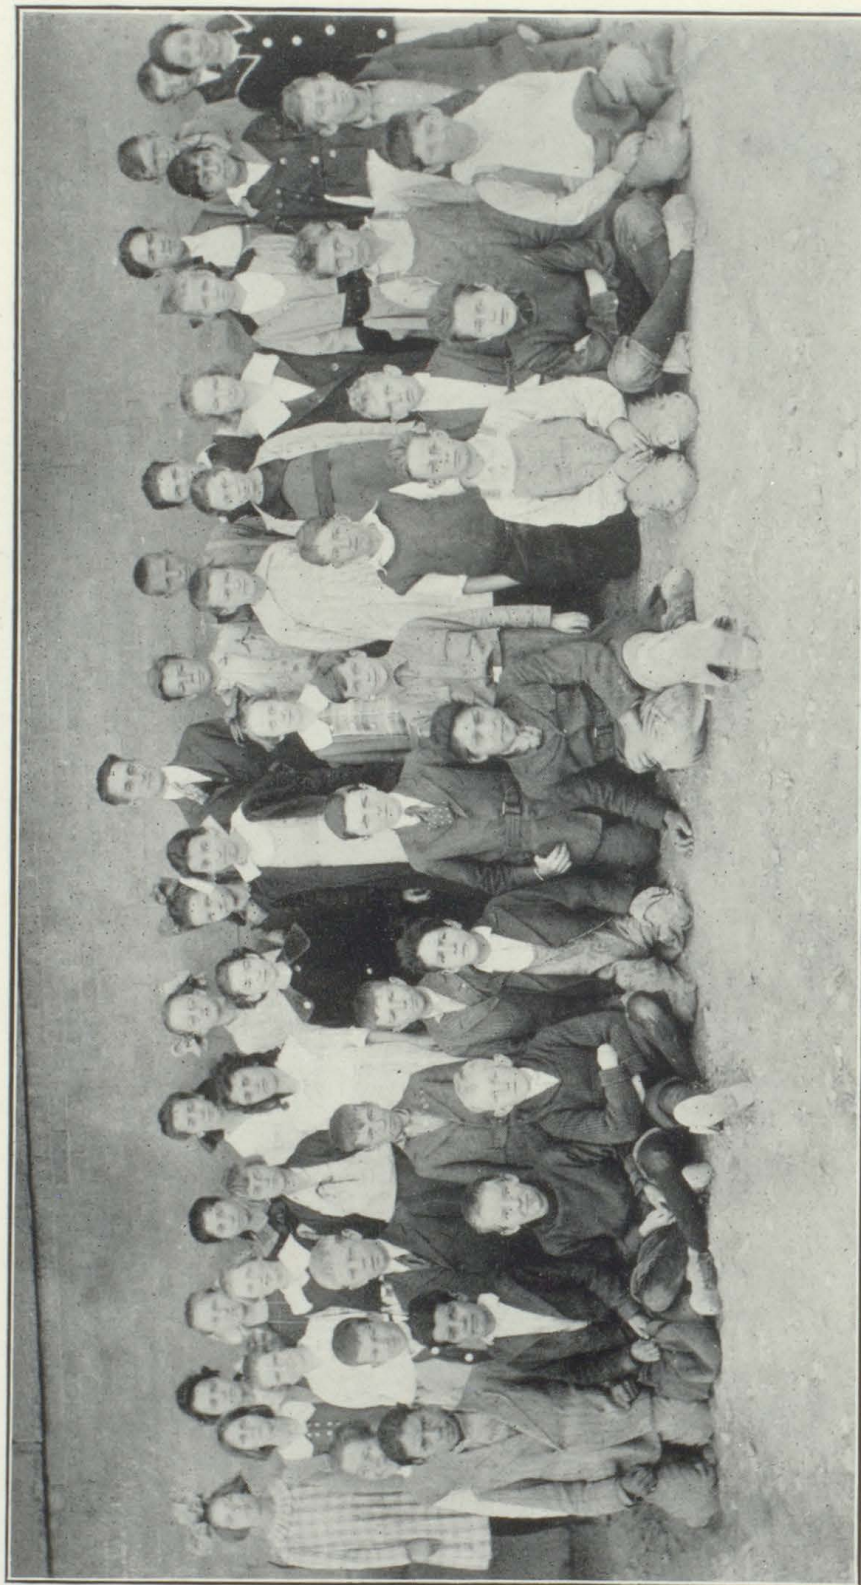

The teachers have kept abreast of the times by doing reading circle work and by the discussion of timely subjects in the weekly meetings of the Parent-Teachers Associations. A rest room and a current magazine shelf has been provided for the teachers and these together with the frequent meeting with the parents have added much to the success of the present school year.

The Girls' Glee Club is one of the most popular organizations connected with the High School, and under the direction of Miss Winifred Pearson it has been the source of great pleasure and profit to its members.

The Glee Club, with its membership of thirty girls, has a regular place on the schedule and is handled in the same manner as any other class in the school.

This organization soon showed the results which may be obtained by consistent and careful work, and whenever the girls have appeared before the school or the public, their audiences have been uniformly and enthusiastically appreciative.

The Winslow High School Orchestra

How proud we are of our splendid High School Orchestra. Shakespeare has said, "The man who has no music in himself or is not moved by concord of sweet sounds is fit for treason, strategem and spoils." No one can say this of the students of the Winslow High. The monthly programs given by the Orchestra are always looked forward to with much interest and enthusiasm. As gymnastic exercise is necessary to keep the body healthy, musical exercise is necessary to keep the soul healthy. The orchestra has a personnel of ten well-trained members and Mr. Goodhall, as their director, has given the community a splendid organization.

CHARLES A. GOODHALL, Director

Under the direction of Mr. Goodhall, it is no wonder that the Winslow High School Band excels all others in the county. Ever since the beginning of the school year the Band has given numerous concerts. They have been taught to appreciate the good music of famous artists. Popular and jazz music has no place in the Band's library. Each one is doing his best to bring the organization to as high a standard as possible. The Band boasts of eighteen members.

The Junior High School Band is also a coming organization, which will insure a splendid High School Band for several years.

Mr. Goodhall is director of both Bands and his untiring efforts and wonderful talent has won for him favorable comment from the entire community.

FOOTBALL TEAM

The Football Season

BY WILBUR HENSLEY

The opening days of the fall term were rewarded with very good prospects for football material. When the call was issued for candidates to make the High School eleven, the response was very gratifying. Enough boys turned out to make two teams, but due to the size of the boys only a few remained who were capable of playing.

The town fellows who responded to our call for help, and to whom we are deeply indebted, are Edwin Clark, Charles Eastman, Lorenzo Rubi, James Cunningham, Dan Dunklin and George Hartz. These fellows gladly gave up the necessary time to help make the Winslow High football team a most formidable one. It goes without saying their services were well appreciated and deserving of a great deal of credit.

The two games of the season, with Flagstaff, one there and a return game here, were a great success. The first game played at Flagstaff resulted in a defeat for us, the score being 32-0. Although we were defeated we gained much in the way of experience. The second game, which was played at home, resulted in a victory, the score being 7-0. We were very proud of this victory for out of it we have found that the students of Winslow High possess the proper kind of spirit, to urge on any team to victory. Another reason for being proud of their victory was that this is the first time in the history of the school that we ever defeated Flagstaff in football.

After the second game with Flagstaff attempts were made to schedule a game with Albuquerque, but this resulted in a failure due to the fact that we were unable to finance the game. Two challenges then followed, one from Prescott and one from Phoenix. We were also unable to bring them here due to the large sum of money it would have required to have them come here.

The financing of the different athletic events is the greatest problem the school must meet. This is due to the location of the town, the cost of transportation and the need of a gymnasium.

We think it well at this time to speak of the fellows from school who worked so hard to make the football team a success. These boys, although having had no football experience, were ready and willing to learn. And in both games with Flagstaff they showed the proper kind of spirit and played like true sportsmen. The names of the members of the team are as follows: Sandoval, Creswell, Moore, Urick, Day, Cooper and Pribble. The substitutes: Andrews, Hitchcock, Camp and Downey.

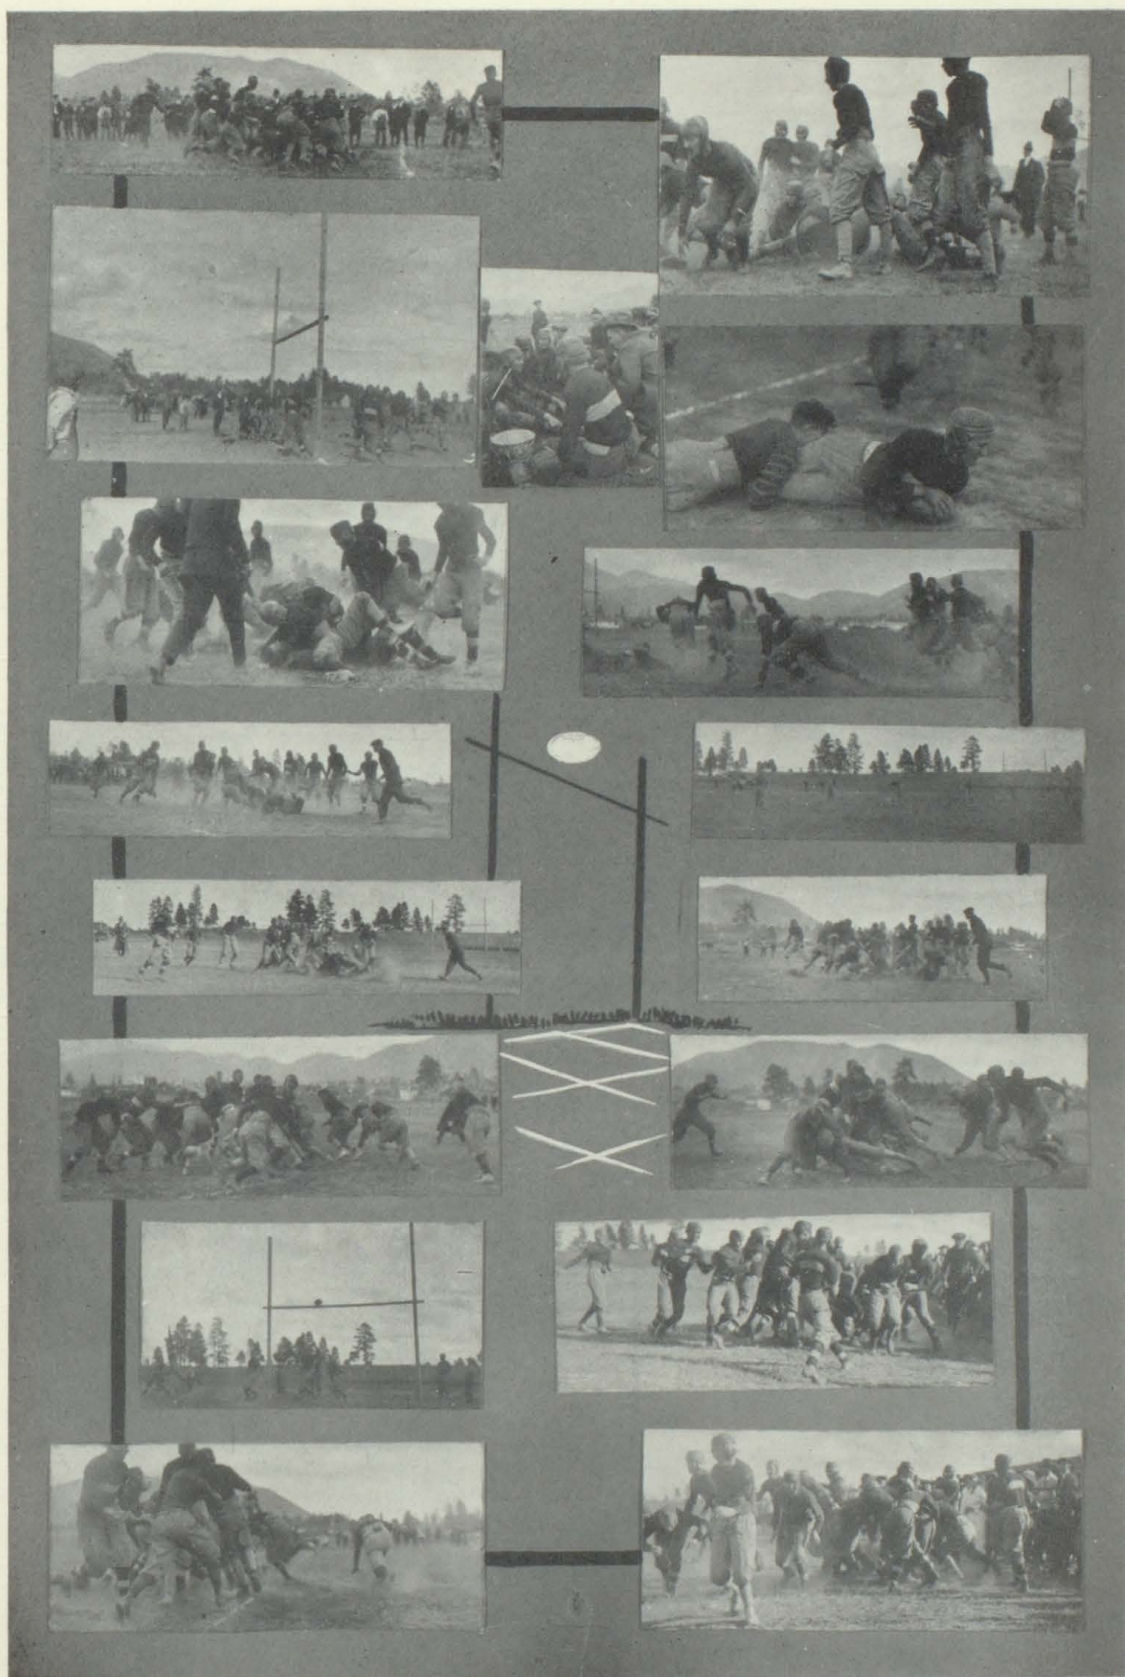

But the success of the team did not alone remain with the players. Mr. Button and Mr. Britt have the appreciation of the entire team and of the school in the way they helped us out.

Mr. Price and Mr. Grover also did a great deal toward promoting the spirit of the school and the townspeople.

Then last but not least Mr. Branigan, our coach, has the appreciation of the entire team for the way he went about whipping us into shape as football players.

GIRLS' BASKET BALL TEAM

Girls' Basket Ball

BY RUTH GOLDSWORTHY

It was about the last of September or the first of October that we began to practice basket ball. The girls all came out and it was not long before we were able to play a good game between the two teams that were organized. Florence Rannels was made captain of one and Nan Long of the other. Later on the first team was chosen from these two teams, and a game scheduled with N. A. N. S. to take place at Flagstaff on the 30th of October and one at Williams on the following night.

The Flagstaff Normal gave us a royal welcome. At 4:15 the game was called. The girls were quite frightened in the first half, but during the second half they let loose and played a good game. As the Normal girls were all much older and larger than our girls it was quite hard to play against them, but we all did the best we could. The game ended in Flagstaff's favor, the score being 23 to 49. Mr. Price acted as referee. We left Flagstaff the next morning for Williams and there we won an easy game with Williams High School, the score being 35 to 12 in our favor. We returned home Sunday afternoon on No. 8.

We continued to practice when we could, the weather being very cold and not having a gymnasium it was very difficult for us to practice.

Our next game was with Flagstaff here. This game was played outside when the weather was even too cold to engage in a game of football and we lost to the State Normal again. After the game the Flagstaff girls were entertained by the Winslow girls by a banquet at the Harvey House.

Our next game was played in Winslow with the Williams High. This was a very easy game and ended in Winslow's favor.

Since we lost quite a bit of money in basket ball and several athletic games the girls of the High School insisted on giving a box supper to raise funds to pay the deficit. This was more than a success, all the girls brought boxes and all the boys bought them. The total sum was $110 raised. This paid the expenses and also put some money in the athletic treasury.

This ended the basket ball for this season, but if the people of Winslow and the patrons of the school would only look into the matter of building a gymnasium here in Winslow it would not only be a benefit to the students but would be a help to the school in every respect. Here's hoping the people of Winslow will take notice and build a gymnasium for the school children and High School students.

BASKETBALL

Boys' Basket Ball

BY JOSEPH BABCOCK

When the call came for all candidates for Basket Ball to turn out Winslow High School bid fair to have one of the strongest teams in Northern Arizona, so with that prospect we began practice with the greatest determination possible.

It being impossible to get a suitable building in town in which to practice and hold our games we had to resort to an outside court for practice.

This circumstance, however, did not dampen our spirits, so we pitched in in preparation for games already on our schedule. The first was with Williams here. The score was 24-10 in favor of Williams.

Just before Xmas it had been planned for a nice long trip down in the valley, but due to the fact that we were unable to return those games we had to be contented with two.

The first game was played at Williams High School, where we were again defeated, 29-15.

After the game at Williams all of us took the train for Ash Fork to await the Phoenix Special.

Everyone was thankful there was a good place to eat at Ash Fork, for here the team waited for three and one-half hours.

On arriving at Prescott at 4:30 the boys went to the hotel to catch a few winks of sleep and at noon the Prescott High Coach had a bunch of boys down at the hotel to take all out to their respective homes for lunch.

The game was a faster one than the score indicated and again it showed the lack of proper training in a gymnasium. In spite of the fact that the score was 30-8 our guards played such a superb game the last half Prescott only made a score of four while we made a score of three.

After the game, the entire team, including Mr. Branigan and Mr. Britt, Captain Howard Creswell, Adolph Downey, Leo Sandoval, Dan Hitchcock, Lynn Camp, and Will Carroll were royally entertained at a school dance.

Athletic Box Supper

The Winslow High School Athletic Association after financing a football and girls' and boys' basketball season found itself financially embarrassed to the extent of about $100.

Careful plans were made by Mr. Price, Mr. Grover and Mr. Branigan for a big box supper to be held at the Electric Theatre on January 22.

The first part of the evening was used in giving a short and well-planned program, a few musical numbers being given by the W. H. S. Band under the supervision of Mr. Goodhall. In addition to these, three numbers were given by townspeople, then a playlet by the Sophomores entitled, "Getting Rid of Father," the cast being composed of Bernardine Creswell, George Anderson, Dick Keyes and Louis Sandoval.

After this enjoyable program the boxes were sold with much "pep" and rivalry between different boys. Mr. Gillard, our noted druggist, acted as auctioneer.

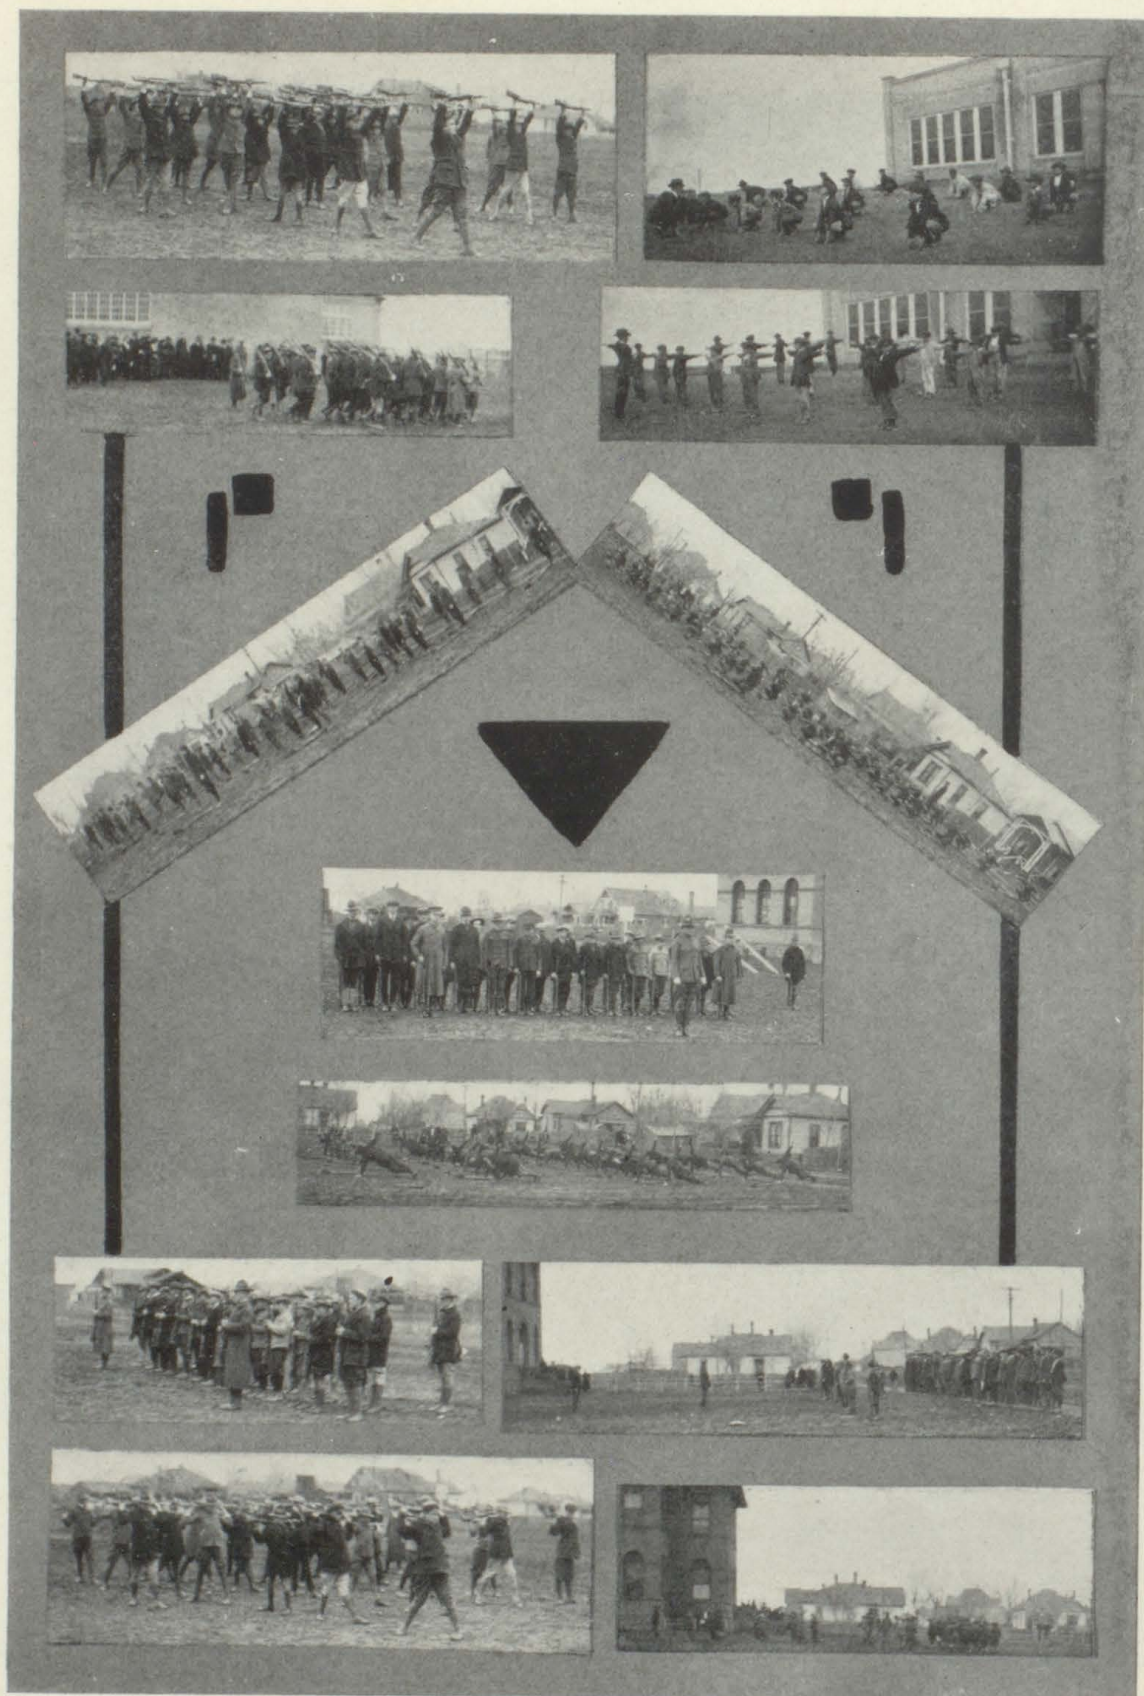

After every one had enjoyed the light lunches found in their boxes the music began and the dance was on. The crowd danced until midnight and then came to a close one of the most enjoyable entertainments Winslow has ever witnessed.

Military Inspection

During the year Winslow Company of the Arizona Cadet Corps had the honor to pass on review before Captain W. S. Ingalls, U. S. A., Adjutant General of the State of Arizona.

Shortly after review the Captain took up a few minutes inspection of the drill by the cadets, Lieut. Gilbert Urick commanding, after which he showed great pleasure in announcing that Winslow Company ranked as one of the best drill cadet companies in the state regiment.

Had all the cadets appeared in uniform certainly we would have made a splendid impression. The fact that a few of the cadets were not in uniform was the only thing the Captain did not favorably comment upon.

However, we are sure before another inspection is made by the State commanding officer, every cadet will have procured a uniform, which will greatly enhance our appearance.

After this first review and inspection the instructor and officers were busy whipping the company into shape for another inspection drill before the Navajo County Teachers' Association, which took place Friday, January 13, at the Washington school grounds.

The program was as follows:

1. Presentation of commissions to: First Lt. Gilbert Urick, Second Lt. Kenneth Cooper.
2. Close order drill by Company under command of every appointed officer.
3. A few exercises from Butt's Manual of Arms.
4. Calisthenics.
5. Retreat.

Indeed, the whole Company displayed excellent spirit throughout the entire drill and it goes without saying Winslow Company made a lasting impression on our visitors.

HIGH SCHOOL CADETS

Military Department

The Military Department of the High School is an important department of the school for here the boys learn the real value of citizenship from all its angles.

Not only does the cadet derive great benefit from a physical standpoint but also the moral and sociological side of his school life are developed to a greater degree.

At the beginning of the school year the company's roster consisted of two officers and thirty-eight men, but new students entering during the year have made our company larger.

The drill for the year has included calisthenics, exercises from Butt's Manual, and target practice with the .22 calibre rifle.

Great interest is being shown in the target work and we are planning on securing a competitive "shoot" with other cities of Northern Arizona for the championship.

As soon as the weather permits, the entire Company will engage in a competitive "shoot" for the purpose of choosing a squad to go to Phoenix. There the Adjutant General of the state will bring together similar squads from all the high schools in Arizona to determine which school can boast of having the best rifle team in the state.

From all prospects at present Winslow Company undoubtedly will have a team that will stand high for the state honors.

The roster of the Company is as follows:

OFFICERS

First Lieutenant—Kenneth Cooper

Second Lieutenant—Ewart Day

Class Will

We, the class of 1920, do hereby make our last will and testament. Not from necessity but from our kindness do we bequeath the following:

First: To our teachers we will the opportunity of instructing the Juniors on "How to be Seniors."

Second: Anna Anderson wills to Apphia Miller, the distinction of the best modern short story writer of English.

Third: Cleo Wilson gladly wills to Helen Sellen her ability to tickle the ivories.

Fourth: Dick Wyrick gladly wills his privilege of being exempted from class work to Ewart Day.

Fifth: Kenneth Cooper regretfully wills his good looks and shining pompadour to Harold Drybread.

Sixth: Elsie Cassin regretfully wills to Jessie Hitchcock her privilege of being sent to the office during class hours.

Seventh: John Drumm wills his privilege of being class comedian to Wilbur Hensley.

Eighth: Willie Carroll gladly wills to Sidney Moore his privilege of talking in all classes.

Ninth: Harry Pribble most regretfully wills to Egbert Bostwick his privilege of standing in the halls and talking to Aleen.

Tenth: To Guillermo Leyva the class wills the privilege of appearing on all programs for solos.

Eleventh: To Gilbert Urich we all will our graceful bearing and irresistible good looks.

Twelfth: Thelma Lamb wills her privilege of saying "No, Please," to Hazel Armstrong.

Thirteenth: Mary Dadey wills her privilege of ditching school for a car ride to Irene Bostwick.

Fourteenth: Nan Long regretfully wills her position as teacher to Stella Nelson.

Fifteenth: Margaret wills her knowledge of history to her brother, Lorenzo Garduno.

Sixteenth: Mildred tearfully wills to Nellie her position as Mr. Grover's Steno.

Seventeenth: To Theoria Pfaff we all will our Senior dignity and worldly knowledge.

Eighteenth: Gertrude McMillan lovingly wills to you, Marvel Penrod, the privilege of lowering your crowns of glory without lowering your dignity.

Nineteenth: Fay Hurt wills the privilege of decorating all the History books with artistic drawings to Edith Bowen.

Twentieth: Margaret Funk tearfully wills to Alice Fenton her baby stare.

We do appoint Mr. Allen sole executor of this, our last will and testament.

Class Prophecy

HARRY PRIBBLE—We expect to hear of Harry in future years, under the Hawaiian moonlight, charming some dark-eyed girl with the melodious strains of his guitar.

KENNETH COOPER—No doubt we will in the future years hear much of the noted chemist, Kenneth Cooper.

JOHN DRUMM—John was never very studious and was always cutting up in school, but he will be a noted comedian some day.

ELSIE CASSIN—Elsie always liked shorthand and we all know she will be the president's steno in the future.

CLEO WILSON—We all expect to hear of the world's famous pianist, Cleo. She always did entertain us with classical music at school.

ANNA ANDERSON—Everyone remembers how Anna was the best story writer in our English class and no doubt she will be one of America's most noted modern short story writers.

MARGARET FUNK—Margaret's ambition was always to be a primary teacher and in a few years she will be instructing and leading the young ones on the road to education and helping them secure some knowledge of English.

NAN LONG—Nan Long is another of our ambitious classmates. No doubt we will often hear of Nan Long as one of the best teachers of America.

ELVA HOWELL—If any of us ever have the chance to visit Europe we will hear much of the world's famous opera singer.

MILDRED MURPHY—We always thought Mildred's ambition was to be a movie star. She will likely be one of the famous stars and highest paid Movie Queens.

FAY HURT—Any one interested in learning something of art will be well instructed by the famous artist, Fay Hurt.

GERTRUDE McMILLAN—Instructions on ice skating can be obtained from Gertrude McMillan. We always heard Gertrude was very gifted.

MARGARET GARDUNO—We will probably hear of Margaret as head clerk in Broadway Department Store, Los Angeles.

DICK WYRICK—Dick, the richest cattle king in Arizona.

WILLIE CARROLL—Instructor of dancing and all the latest steps. Willie always could dance.

MARY DADEY—We also think that Mary Dadey will be a noted singer in the future, for she charmed us with a few selections before Mr. Lewis arrived.

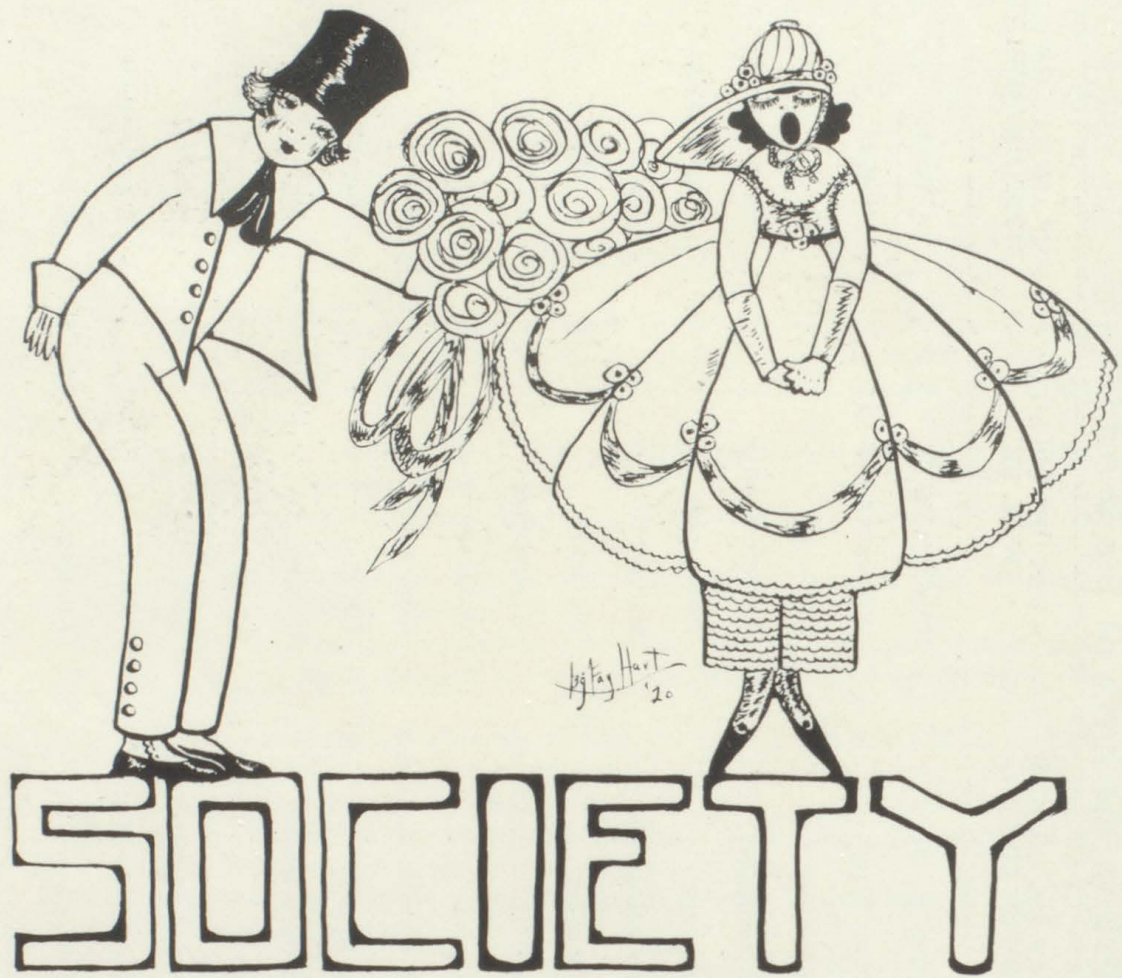

THELMA LAMB—No doubt Thelma will be chief operator in the Telephone Office at Los Angeles.

FRESHMAN INITIATION

On the evening of September 26, 1919, the Faculty, Seniors, Juniors and all the fearful, trembling Freshmen were the guests of the Sophomores, at the High School Building. The Freshmen were persuaded to furnish the entertainment for the evening in order that they might gain some knowledge of how the Sophomores thought they should conduct themselves in the future. Their strenuous efforts afforded great amusement and were followed by dainty refreshments. Every one voted the Sophomores royal entertainers.

"RECEPTION"

A reception was held in the Washington School in honor of the Teachers of the Winslow City Schools to which all of our parents were invited in order that they might become acquainted with our teachers. A splendid program was rendered and every one declared the evening one of great pleasure.

"WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES"

"JUNIORS AND SENIORS"

Mr. Branigan, the class adviser of those Juniors, decided that on the evening of October 10th he would entertain them by giving a theatre party at the Opera House in their honor, with refreshments of sodas at the Central Drug Co. The Seniors, not to be outdone by the Juniors, decided that on that same evening they would have a theatre party also, with refreshments at the Central Drug Co. Each class sang their respective class songs and gave their class yells. After the show a yell was given for the whole school. They then departed and a good time was voted by both classes.

"BORROWING TROUBLE"

"GETTING RID OF FATHER"

INDOOR TRACK MEET

The Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors and Faculty were the honor guests of the Freshmen at an Indoor Track Meet given Friday, November 7th, at the Washington building. Some of us were not very good athletes but all did our best. A delicious luncheon was served by the Freshmen and every one declared the Freshmen were as royal entertainers as the Sophomores.

BOX SUPPER

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was a box supper given January 23rd, by the Athletic Association, at the Electric Theatre. The beautifully decorated boxes all sold at high prices and after the supper a free dance was given and enjoyed by all present.

ANOTHER RECEPTION

The Teachers Institute for Navajo County was held in Winslow January 28-29-30. On the evening of the twenty-eighth a reception was held in the Washington School in honor of the visiting Teachers. A splendid program was rendered, which consisted of the following numbers:

Vocal Solo.....	Mr. Miller
Xylophone Solo.....	Mr. Goodhall
Saxaphone Solo.....	Mr. Matthews
Vocal Solo.....	Mr. Price

Dancing followed. There were many out of town teachers present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Several distinguished visitors were here, among whom was State Superintendent C. O. Case.

A Brief Calendar

1919-1920

SEPTEMBER

- 6—Registration Day.
- 8—School opens.
- 26—Big event in school term—Freshies initiated.

OCTOBER

- 3—Seniors did their best to put the school in misery for forty-five minutes of entertainment.
- 4—Football game at Flagstaff. Big defeat, 32-0.
- 10—Some one said Mr. Brannigan's heart was melting. Here's some proof. He took that bunch of Juniors to the show. The Seniors came after a short time to try to show the Juniors how to act.
- 18—Winslow's world record as football players. Flagstaff vs Winslow, score 6-0.
- 19—Sophie's try to imitate the Senior's program of two weeks ago.
- 31—Freshies also make a struggle to entertain the school.

NOVEMBER

- 7—Freshmen make their debut in society. They tried hard to entertain the school by a party at the Washington school.
- 8—Girls' basket ball at Flagstaff; score 45-10 in favor of Flagstaff.
- 11—Football game—Shops vs. Winslow High, score 26-3. We expect to head the list of football stars.
- 14—Mr. Black has to order a new supply of Baby Ben's—reason—the Juniors win tardy contest.
- 15—Another victory! Girls' Basket Ball—Winslow vs. Williams, score 43-4.
- 18—Juniors all have disappointed and far away look. Why? Weather causes their picnic to be postponed.
- 22—Boys' Basket Ball game—Winslow vs. Williams, score 15-6; the victory being Williams.

DECEMBER

- 19—Basket Ball Boys leave for extended trip to Williams and Prescott.
- 24—Why the smile and happy look on every one's face?—Xmas. Holiday in view.

JANUARY

- 5—School re-opens.
- 16—Back to childhood—Many of the girls wear aprons and hair down and boys wear overalls.
- 23—Box social at Electric. They cleared about $90.00.
- 28—Teachers' Institute starts. Teachers from all over the county graced our school for three days.
- 29—Half holiday today on account of Teachers' Institute—we are all wishing we would have Teachers' Institute once a month.
- 30—Half holiday again—Teachers' generosity is surprising.

FEBRUARY

- 2—All the school in tears—Gilbert Urick leaves for Monrovia, Calif. Quite a number at train and we arrived back to school just in time to miss our first classes. What luck!
- 11—Parts distributed to Winslow's stars for the Junior play, "What Happened to Jones." and practice started.

 Hazel Armstrong in long skirts? or Alice Fenton without her face powdered? or
 The Freshies with brains?

Sidney to Elsie: "I know what I will give you for a graduation present."
 Elsie C.: "What?"
 Sidney (Thinking of future happiness): "A cook book."

Mr. Lewis: "Who can tell me a thing of importance that did not exist a hundred years ago?"
 Dick W.: "Me."

Dan H.: "If Mr. Grover don't take back what he said this morning I'm going to quit school."
 Wad.: "What did he say?"
 Dan: "He told me to leave school."

"Illustration of a certain young man in Assembly"

HAD A LITTLE CURL

Margaret had a little curl
That hung behind her ear;
But when she went to bed at night
It hung on the chiffonier.

Harry had a little Lamb,
Her hair was white as cotton;
And everywhere that Aleen went,
Harry went a trottin'.

Perhaps some time:—

1. The Seniors will have their assembly program on time.
2. Helen Sellen will be dignified.
3. E. Day will make a great discovery in Chemistry.
4. There will be no American history tests.
5. Will Carroll will arrive before 8:30.
6. Jessie and Elsie will not stand in the halls between classes.
7. There will be no tardies.
8. The Annual will be sent away.
9. Ruth G. will not come down stairs four steps at a time.
10. Harry Pribble will divide his affections.
11. Olive Leonard will get below 98.
12. Mr. Grover won't stutter.
13. Joe Babcock will shrink.
14. Thelma Lamb will cease to say "No, please?"
15. The Seniors will win the tardy contest.
16. Mr. Price will look grouchy.
17. Mable Kelly and Arleen Miller won't talk in the study hall.
18. Helen R. will behave in classes.
19. Mary Dadey will pay attention in class.

IF—

If Anna Anderson never studied at all;
If Howard Creswell was slim and tall,
If Ewart Day would keep his seat,
If Mabel Kelley had monstrous feet,
If Ruthella Henderson would stop her talk,
If Joseph Babcock would cease to gawk,
If Dan Hitchcock would leave the girls alone,
If Ruth Goldsworthy had suddenly grown,
If Alice Fenton wasn't so terribly loud,
If Harold Drybread didn't look so proud,
If Irene Bostwick could be undignified,
If Stella Nelson wasn't easily mortified,
If Howard Creswell would cease to stare,
At a certain girl with fiery hair,
If Wilbur Hensley his height would share,
If Sydney Moore would his ways amend,
This dear old world would suddenly end.

"Those typy writing Mistakes"

A QUESTION.

What is the best way to make a coat last?
Make the trousers and vest first.

Mr. Lewis: "Wallace, you were not in class yesterday, was it on account of the inclemency of the weather?"

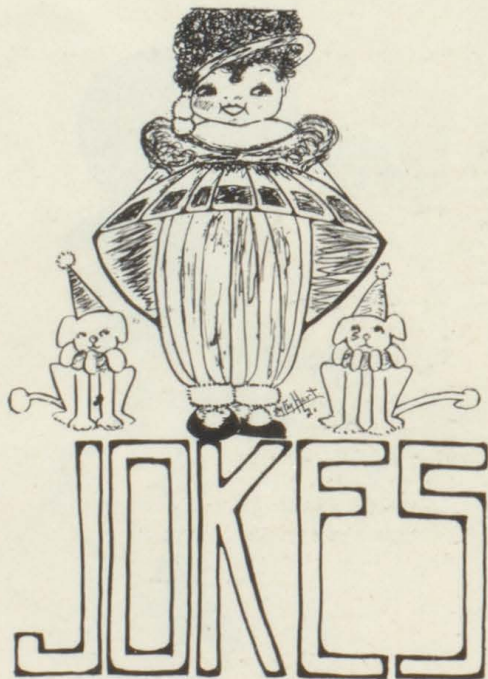

Wallace: "No, on account of the rain."

Miss Dinsmoor: "Ruth, spell 'needle'."

Ruth: "N-e-i-d-l-e."

Miss Dinsmoor: "There's no 'i' in needle."

Ruth: "Then it isn't a needle, it's a pin."

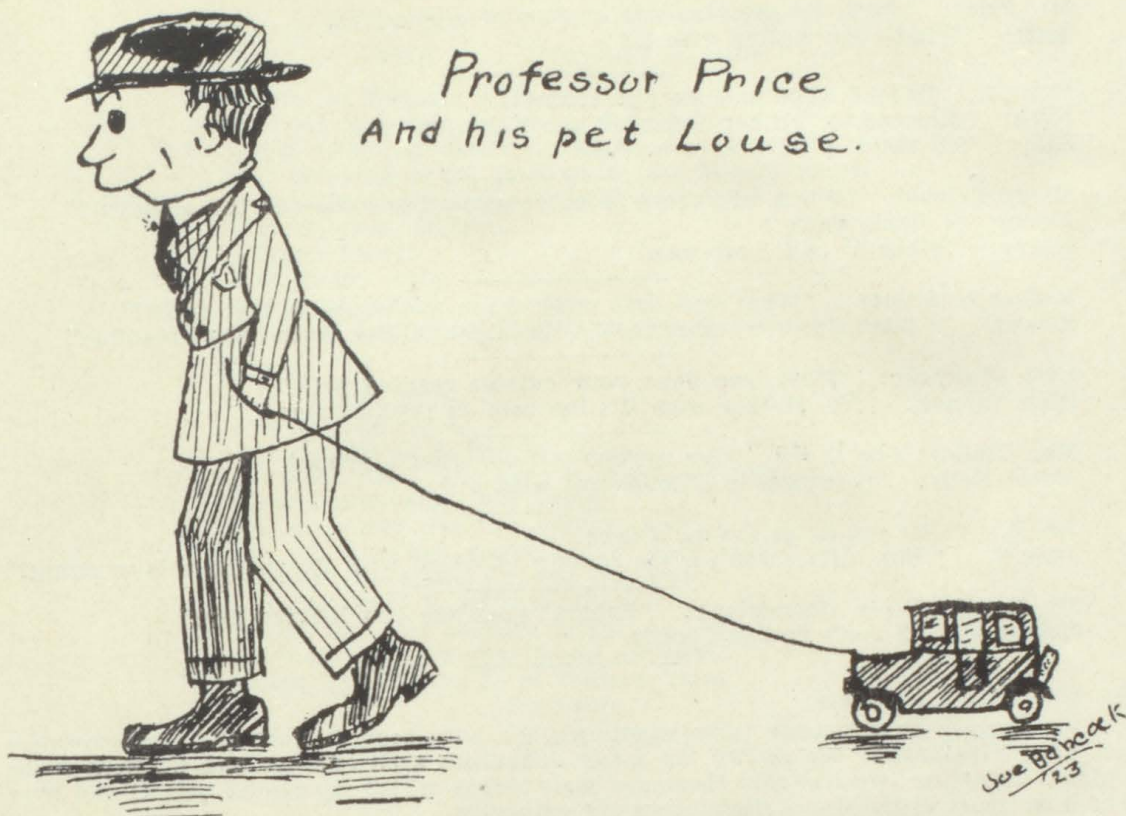

Arthur Schaar had a cow he called "Zephyr,"
She seemed an amiable hephyr.

But when Arthur drew near,
She kicked off his ear;
And now poor Art is much dephydr.

Harry ate a cake of yeast
Before he went to bed;
Tomorrow is a school day and
I must rise on time, he said.

When Harry's mother came at six,
To still the alarm's wild pealing,
She found poor Harry fast asleep,
Against the bedroom ceiling.

Mr. B.: "Jessie, what is one of the properties of bromide?"
 Jessie: "It smells red."

Mrs. Lamb: "Aleen, why did you stand out at the gate so long with that Pribble boy?"

Aleen: "Aw, I only stayed out there for a second."

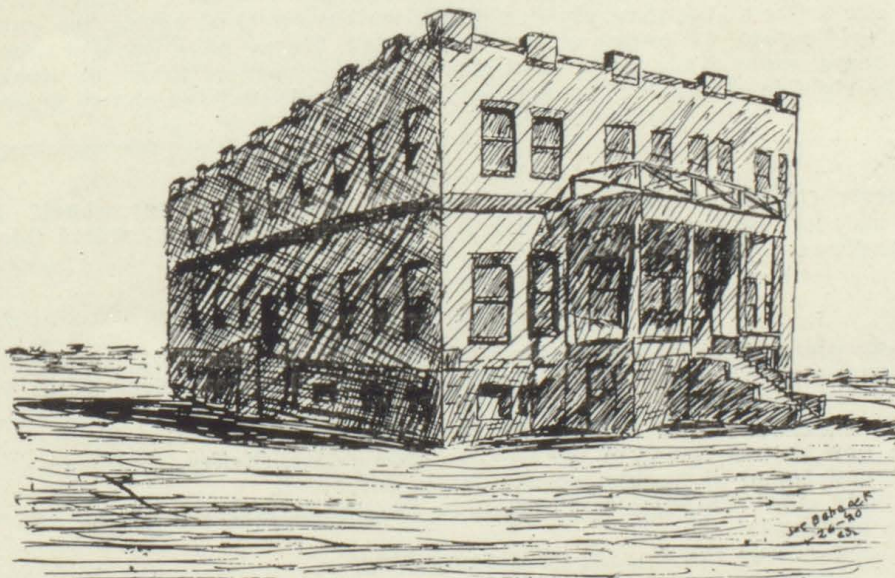

Mrs. Lamb: "Yes, and I heard the third and fourth."

Mr. Price: "Well, what excuse have you for being tardy?"
 Freshies: "Mama told me, but I forgot."

Miss Dinsmoor: "Harry, spell weather."

Harry L.: "W-e-t-t-h-e-r."

Miss Dinsmoore: "Well, that's certainly the worst spell of weather we've had for some time."

Mr. Price: "Jack, let me give you a piece of advice."
Jack: "What's the matter with it?"

Sam H.: "May I come and see you tonight?"
Ruth: "Remember, Father turns off the lights at ten."
Sam: "All right, I'll be there at ten."

Harry Pribble: "When will there be only twenty-five letters in the alphabet?"
Aleen: "I don't know."
Harry: "When U and I are one."

Mother to Sidney: "What was that noise when you came in last night?"
Sidney: "I don't know whether it was the night falling or the day breaking."

Miss Dinsmoor: "Have you done your outside reading yet?"
Dick Wyrick: "No, Mother says it's too cold to read outside."

Mrs. Claffey: (In D. S.) "Can anyone tell me what a pretzel is?"
Mabel Kelly: "A pretzel is a dough-nut with a fit."

Joe B.: "Can you go as fast as a deer?"
Jack K.: "Sure, didn't you see me coming to school with Bernadine this morning?"

Mr. Branigan (In Chemistry): "Egbert, what are you looking for?"
Egbert B.: "I can't find my bottle."

My Dear Fellow Students:

We Seniors do not mean to be exacting. We have been Juniors and Sophomores—yes, even Freshmen! We realize the many difficulties each one has and we wish to be lenient. However, we feel that there are some things which we cannot permit and over which we must exercise our justly deserved authority.

For instance, we would like to warn the Juniors against mimicing the Seniors. We know that it must be a terrible temptation to them for the manners and ways of a Senior are necessarily faultless. We deem it only fair, however, to keep that distinction within the class. Be not too boastful of your future as a Senior. There is many a zero twist report and hero. And last but not least, let us warn you not to get too familiar with your class advisor. The professor is a man of few words and strong hand.

To the Sophomores we extend greetings. To be sure, they have just passed the Freshie age and still chew gum, but, outside of thinking they have a clear deed of title to this whole school, we have had little trouble with them. Their "crushes" on "teachers" are somewhat pathetic, but we are willing to lay that to the newly acquired long trousers of the boys and the still longer skirts of the girls.

Dear Freshmen—how we love them — but why will they eat Hershey's during class and draw funny pictures in their English books? As one sits in the study hall they can be easily seen by the naked eye—chewing gum, eating candy, poking one another with pencils, and whispering, whispering all day long. These are the bold bad men of the school and the soulful eyed vamps in pigtails. Some of the boys even carry matches and I caught one Freshman girl with a powder puff. What is Winslow coming to?

These are a few of the most obvious things we have noticed among the under classmen. As I said before, we do not wish to be exacting, but we have traveled over this old road four years, some of us more, according to the number of times we flunked. We feel that the right is ours to call your attention to these little facts and to demand them corrected.

THE SENIORS.

Mr. Grover (to Rev. Andrews): "Well, what do you think of our school? Splendid discipline, isn't it? By the way, what was it struck you first as you entered this room?"
Rev. Andrews: "A paper wad."

ADVERTISEMENTS

To the tune of "The Alcoholic Blues."

"THE U. S. HISTORY BLUES"

I love my history, indeed I do,
But oh! that man has made me blue,
I like studying, that's my name,
But studying is the least about the history game,
When Mr. Price assigned long lessons,
I didn't even hesitate,
I didn't frown;
I wrote my tests,
I studied hard,
And now Louie digs deep in my grade.

Chorus:

I've got the blues,
I've got the blues,
I've got the U. S. History blues,
No more Price who used to treat me nice,
Hello Louie—Good bye Price!
Oh, we would like to have you back,
Oh, tell me when you're comin' back again?
I've got the blues, I've got the blues,
I've got the U. S. History blues,
Lordy, but that period's long,
Oh, how we wish you taught us again,
Blues, I've got the U. S. History blues.

Sincerely,

THE AMERICAN HISTORY CLASS.

---

Miss Wilson: "Helen, what is the best known phrase in the English language?"

Helen Sellen: "I don't know."

Miss Wilson: "Correct, Helen."

---

Fond Father of Howard Creswell: "My son is taking English of you, is he not?"

Miss Dinsmoor: "He has been exposed to English, but I don't think he will take it."

---

"WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF——"

Arleen Miller stopped blushing;
Francis Leonard didn't whisper in history;
Ruth Goldsworthy stopped trying to vamp;
Alton Andrews lost his knowledge;
Ruthella Henderson stopped talking;
We had more desperate cases like Harry's and Aleen's;
Nobody ever stood in the halls and talked;
Mr. Branigan failed to keep Jessie after class;
Sidney got 100 in English;
Mr. Lewis gave the American history class short lessons;
We didn't have Mr. Price to lead "Pep Meetings";
Helen Ramage didn't chew gum???

"CLASSIFIED ADS."

Lost—A heart. Return to Vernard Redman.

Found—A true and noble love. Gilbert Urick.

Wanted—Shorter assignments from Mr. Lewis.—His Pupils.

Wanted—An automatic theme writer. See Egbert Bostwick.

Wanted—An alarm clock. See Sidney Moore.

Wanted—An introduction to some new boys. See Alice Fenton.

Wanted—A date with Bernice Pillsbury. Melvin Rushing.

SMILE EXTINGUISHERS

A call to the office.
Miss Dinsmoor's frown.
Your note captured in transit.
A change of seats when you sit in the back of the assembly room.

Ewart Day is thinking of organizing an esthetic dancing class for the most awkward boys in school to develop their gracefulness. Those desiring to enter the class please hand in their names.

FOR SALE—Miss Edith Williams will sell her puffs at a reasonable price. They are as good as new as she has only worn them several months. It is understood that Miss Williams intends to purchase a wig.

SOME INSEPARABLES.

Hazel Armstrong and her gum.
Dan Hitchcock and his dreams of athletic greatness.
Mr. Lewis and Chicago.
Katherine Bauer and her lessons.

Aleen Lamb, one of Theda Bara's fans, has ensnared the beating heart of Harry Pribble. Harry says that he don't know what to do so he'll just stay that way.

Mr. Lewis (going into barber shop): "I want a hair cut.
John Drumm: "Which one this time, Mr. Lewis?"

Mr. Price (in History): "Dick, what was the name of the place where Peter the Great fought in Russia?"

George A. (sneezing): "A-a-choo-witz-ski."

Mr. Price: "George, please wait until I call on you."

Ewart: "What makes your hair so short, KC? Did you have it cut?"
KC.: "No, I washed it last night and it shrunk."

FAMOUS SAYINGS

Mrs. Claiffey: "Now, class."
Mr. Goodhall: "Alright, boys."
Olive L.: "Faith——"

Mr. Branigan: (to Melvin): "Say, you're supposed to be at attention."

Melvin (bowlegged): "Well, I am."

Mr. Branigan: "Well, maybe you think you are, but you're really at parade rest."

Tell Mr. Lewis not in mournful numbers,
Shorthand is an easy stunt;
For he who often slumbers
Wakes after he has flunked.

WHO?

"May I print a kiss on your lips?" I said,
And she nodded her sweet permission;
So we went to press and I rather guess
We printed a full edition.

Miss Wilson: "Willie, don't come in dragging your feet that way."
Jessie H.: "Maybe that's the only way he can get them in."

The way the Seniors interpreted the marks on their cards:
A—Awful. B—Bad. C—Corking. And D—Dandy.

Ruthella: "What goes around a button?"

Arlis: "Why a buttonhole, of course."

Ruthella: "Nope, a goat."

Mrs. Claffy (on being refused a new hat): "I cook and cook for you and what do I get? Nothing!"

Mr. Claffy: "You're lucky. I always get indigestion."

Miss Dinsmoor: "Hazel, what are you holding your hand up for?"
Hazel: "So the Freshmen can see my new ring."

IN WINSLOW HIGH

The stairs are the steepest
And always the cleanest,
In Winslow High.
Opportunities are the thickest
And the students are the slickest,
But "Little" can catch the quickest,
In Winslow Hi.
The girls are the sweetest,
And dress themselves the neatest,
In Winslow Hi.
They wear the tallest collars,
And know the worth of dollars,
Which they squeeze till the eagle hollers,
In Winslow Hi.
The students are the proudest,
Behavior talks the loudest,
In Winslow Hi.
The Juniors are the greenest,
The Freshies are the meanest,
And the superintendent the keenest,
In Winslow Hi.
Some boys are the cutest,
While others are the rudest,
In Winslow Hi.
With girls they like to stay,
To while the time away,
And lose their hearts most every day,
In Winslow Hi.
Some of the teachers are too tall,
While others are too small,
In Winslow Hi.
They've all a twinkling eye,
That woos the passerby,
Oh! let me live and die,
In Winslow Hi.

Miss Dinsmoor: "What tense is 'I am beautiful'?"
Vernard: "Remote past."

Thelma: "How did you make out in the History exam?"
Harold D.: "Aw, he asked me about a lot of things that happened before I was born."

Mr. Lewis: "Do you know Lincoln's Gettysburg address?"
Fay Hurt: "I thought he lived in the White House."

Mr. Price: "When did the revival of learning begin?"
Helen Sellen: "Just before the exams."

Herman: "What are you going to be, Joe?"
Joe B.: "I'm going to be a doctor."
Herman: "If you're going to be a doctor then I'll be an undertaker."

The Preacher: "My mission in life is to save men."
Bernice P.: "O, save one for me, won't you?"

Wilbur H.: "What would you do if you were in my shoes?"
K. C.: "Get 'em shined."
